

THE EVA AND HENRY GONSALVES MEMORIAL TUITION ASSISTANCE SCHOLARSHIP School Year 2021-2020

The Eva and Henry Gonsalves Memorial Tuition Assistance Scholarship celebrates the Gonsalves family’s devotion and dedication to St. Anthony School and St. Anthony’s parish.

Eva and Henry Gonsalves were Wailuku residents and St. Anthony parish members who saved every penny possible from Henry’s Wailuku Sugar plantation job so that their three children Robert “Bobby” (class of ’54), James “Ronnie” (class of ’56) and Barbara “Nona” (class of ’57) could benefit from the excellent education that St. Anthony School provides. Eva and Henry are no longer with us, but their high regard for St. Anthony School and St. Anthony parish lives strong in the hearts of their surviving family members who honor the sacrifices parents make for their children’s education. This scholarship is a gift to St. Anthony School from the Erin and Robert Gonsalves, Jr. family of Atlanta, Georgia.

This tuition assistance scholarship is for returning students to St. Anthony School, high school division. Applicants must have completed at least one year of high school at SAS. The applicant must have demonstrated good academic success while also being involved in BOTH school and church activities. The recipient should have a strong commitment to continue his/her studies at St. Anthony School.
